“THE LINDEN CENTRE RANKED BY TRIP ADVISOR
AS THE “BEST SMALL HOTEL IN CHINA”

THE LINDEN CENTRE: YANG'S HOUSE

An elegant 14-room Bai-style boutique hotel and center for cultural exchange, located in Xizhou, Yunnan in Southwest China.

The Linden Centre hotels aspire to provide an enlightened immersion into rural china. Curious and passionate travelers, in search of a more profound cultural experience, will have direct access to timeless traditional communities via our carefully preserved and re-purposed compounds.

The Linden Centre's hotels are still the only nationally protected heritage sites that serve as cultural bridges between the local community and our guests. Come for the culture, come for the adventure. Discover the majestic traditions and gracious people that are china.

“The rooms and grounds are truly an artist's haven, with Bai-style antiques in both the public and private spaces, and original art and artifacts arranged to enhance the architecture around every corner. I felt at home from the moment I checked in.”
